While the file is downloading to your computer, you may see a new blank screen open in your browser. It is normal.

If you have ordered several recordings, please allow one file to download before downloading other files.

If you are using iPad or iPhone, you will need to first download one of the download manager apps from iTunes.

You will also receive an email with your download link to the email address you specified with your payment:

==== DOWNLOADS ====
Deep Relaxation hypnosis: (<https://omnideus.cartloom.com/dl/get/43fc6b4c63455d122360d9>

This is your download link and not your listening link. When you click on the link, the file will automatically download to the download folder on your computer, usually called “downloads”.

Depending on the mail client you are using, you may also be able to right-click on the file and choose “download linked file” option.

Depending on how you have your computer set-up, when the file has downloaded, it may start playing in the default mp3 player on your computer, like iTunes.

To listen to the file again, you should access it from the folder where you have downloaded or if you have placed it in iTunes, then by clicking on the file in your iTunes library.

If you encounter any issues with your downloads, please email me at downloads@deeptancenow.com

You can download each file you purchase up to 3 times. However if you experience any download issues, I will try to help you to resolve them.

If for some reason you are unable to download the recording through automatic downloads, I will send you your download link through Adobe service or in another way that works for you.

Computers do crash, so please back-up a copy of your downloaded files onto an external hard drive, flash drive or CDs.

All audio files are regular mp3 files. Some recordings come with additional instructions or scripts, which are delivered in .pdf format.
